THE VELOCITY POWER WASH AND PROTECT JOURNEY

Founded by Nigel and Tracey a dynamic couple who while painting clients homes in their Painting Business recognized that the house washing being done was short of being satisfactory. Nigel Cotton started his career 33 years ago, tinting paints and selling Decorative and Automotive paint. A natural businessman, his charisma and entrepreneurial spirit quickly saw him rise through the ranks in his career.

In his many decades in the industry, Nigel has established his own reputable Painting and House Washing business. He has held Management roles during his career including a CEO role.

Tracey Strahan is a sharp business lady with an eye for detail. A peopleperson Tracey has partnered Nigel as the founder of this leading edge business

Moving from strength to strength, Nigel poured his years of experience in painting into his own major company, the Velocity Group, which now includes Velocity Power wash and Protect

After years in the painting industry, Nigel & Tracey recognized a gap in the market for a faster, more effective washing technique that would add value to a clients home by removing damaging contaminants and applying a German Patented Wash product that keeps the surfaces looking pristine for longer.

He soon set about finding the most effective and efficient technology and products to bring this service to his clients and Velocity Power Wash and Protect has been thriving ever since. Now with demand for the service higher than ever across Australia, Nigel & Tracey are ready to onboard new Franchisees in Australia who share their passion for a soft wash cleaning system that is leading edge.

WHAT WE DO

Velocity Power Wash and Protect specialists in a unique and highly effective soft wash system suitable for residential and commercial properties as well as marine and automotive. Velocity's formula is biodegradable, nontoxic, and environmentally conscious, green labelled as an environmentally safe choice.

Using an exclusive high end German Patented Wash product - Velocity Power Wash and Protect formula is 100% Biodegradable environmentally friendly. This product delivers a superior Wash finish with the added value of an Acrylionic Protective coating that bonds to the surface to protect against the harsh climate and environmental factors that typically compromise the longevity of the surfaces being coated.

Acrylionic, our revolutionary product is an easy-to-use foaming wash, designed to clean as it renews and shines even the toughest surfaces.

Velocity Defence Shield is a leading edge next level germ protection treatment and has been scientifically proven to provide protection against mould and algae to provide a germ free surface for up to 30 days. Velocity Defence Shield is a Zoono licensed distributor and reseller.

Our innovative leading edge products delivers the protection and finish that our clients love, delivering superior environmental friendly protection for your asset.
